Car Seat Safety Checks at the Skokie Farmers' Market

The Skokie Farmers' Market season is well underway! Visit the market on Sunday, September 13, 2015 for the first ever car seat safety check event with the Skokie Health Department. When used correctly, car seats help to transport your most precious cargo safely. By appointment only, so please register by calling 847/933-8252.

The Market is open Sunday's through October 25, 2015 from 7:30 a.m. until 12:45 p.m. and located in the west half of the Village Hall parking lot at 5127 Oakton Street. Enjoy music by jazz guitarist, Doug Blake too.

Don't miss out on the wide selection of fresh grown seasonal fruits and vegetables, which are always in abundance. Also available are fresh baked goods, farm fresh eggs, meats, a variety of mushrooms and cheeses, fresh cut flowers and plants and much more. Arrive early for the best selection.

The market is sponsored by the Consumer Affairs Commission. There are new vendors and other fun surprises at this year's Farmers' Market for families including a document destruction/paper shredding event on September 20, a story time with the Skokie Public Library on September 27, Touch-a-Truck event on October 4, a vendor demo and meet the Animal Control Division on October 18, balloon artist and a variety of musicians. Visit www.skokie.org for details.

For more information on the Skokie Farmers' Market contact Janelle Silva, Market Manager, at 847/933-8257 or visit www.skokie.org.
